Dedication

All the world's a stage--
And all the men and women merely players:

Best wishes to a sweet girl and a great one.
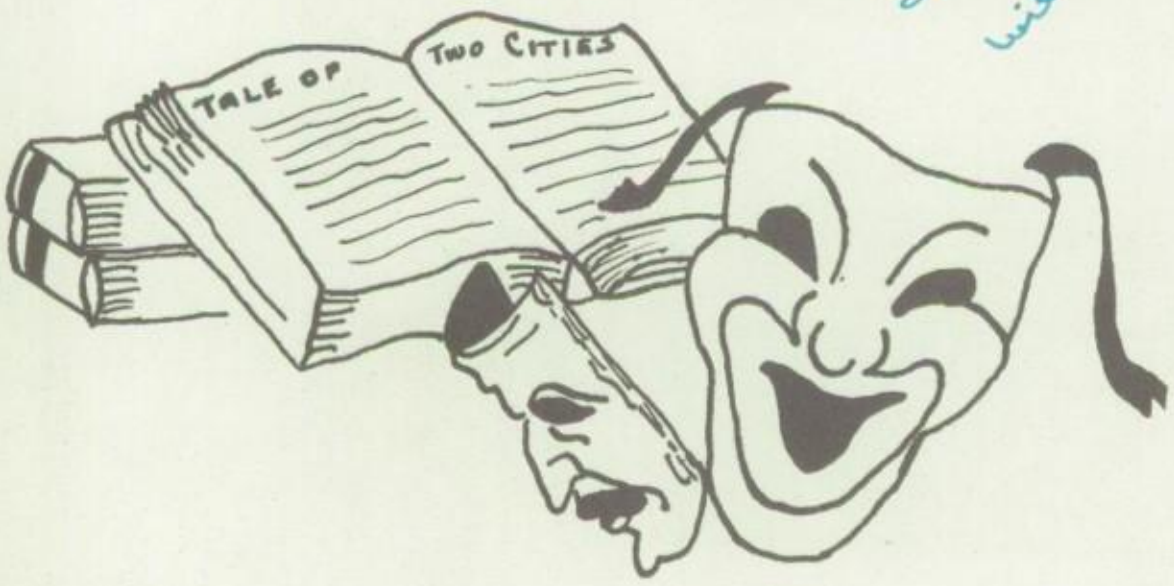
Love G. Schneider



Dedication

We, the Senior Class of 1954, proudly dedicate our "Terrace Memoirs" to Miss Schneider as a token of our sincere appreciation and gratitude for many enjoyable English classes and our thanks for her guidance and assistance in producing our Freshmen and Senior Plays. Her never-wavering interest in us has made our school a better place.

Senior Play

A HIT!

We'll remember them saying:

Miss Burgess (Mary Lois Skaar) "Let me down! Let me down!"
Mr. Carter (Francis Bruns) "This is no time for discussion."
Jocko Guthrie (Chuck Johnson) "Do Lorry and I have many scenes together?"
Milton Saunders (Wayne Manthe) "I feel like Amos and Andy all rolled up in one."
Nancy Leveridge (Beverley Paske) "I always do what my father says."
Tony Peterson (David Homman) "There's nothing I like better than watching a bunch of fool kids making bigger fools of themselves."
Mr. Richard Leveridge (Gilbert Rauls) "Excited? Who's getting excited?"
Buck O'Hara (Robert Frye) "I can't t-t-t-alk. Laryngitis, I think."
Andrew Fulbright (Robert Showers) "That settles it! You stay home and watch television!"
Elsie Hunter (Luanne Rublee) "Sou--r sto--machhhhhh."
Janet Young (Kathleen Riley) "Isn't Mr. Carter the cutest thing?"
Kyle Roberts (Beverly Yngsdahl) "Are you a kleptomaniac, my good man?"
Sylvia Moore (Diane Moran) "I could of done better when I was a freshman."
Lorry Fuller (Shirley Caldwell) "oh--go jump in a lake!"
Joan White (Ruth Anderson) "Oh boy! Just like Garbo and Gilbert!"
Miss Rivers (Shirley Leatherberry) "I have no intention whatever of interferring."
Mrs. Young (Mildred Fuller) "You know I'm Janet's mother, don't you?"
Mrs. Green (Carol Bollig) "That Lorry Fuller ought to be on the professional stage."
Miss Moran (Nancy Bakke) "I've never been so insulted in all my life!"

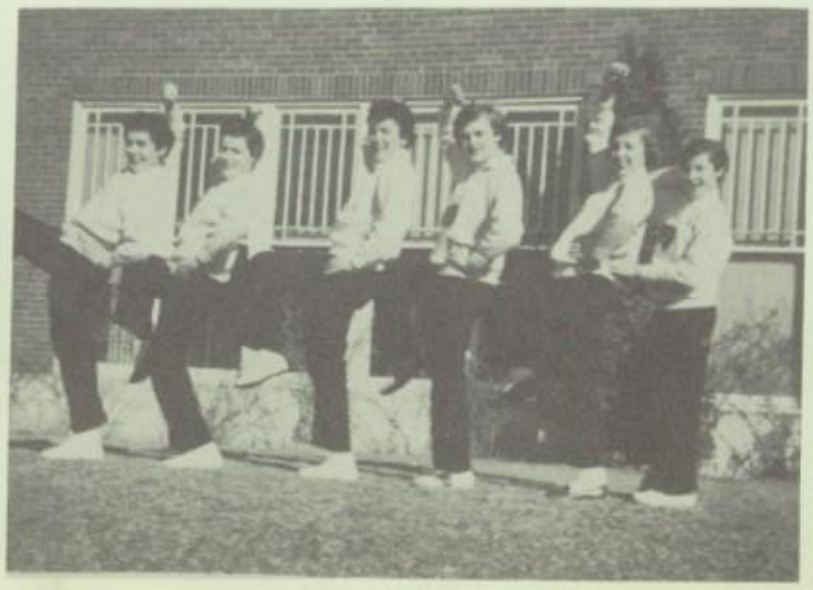
PROGRAM.....SCHOOL CALENDAR

August	31	Teachers, "Ugh! back to school."
September	1	Students, "Ugh! Ugh! back to school." We welcome our teachers, new and otherwise.
	7	Hooray! National holiday--Labor Day.
	11	Our first football game a win for us. We beat Sauk City, 7-6.
	15	Elected class officers and advisors.
	18	Succumbed to Verona at Firemen's Park, 7-6.
	21	Shirley Caldwell and Lewie Falk nominated for Student Council President. The battle is on.
	23	Phew! Campaigning is over--Elections count Shirley as winner.
	25	Romped over Waterloo here, 27-0.
October	1	Each class selected two representatives for candidates for Homecoming Queen. Seniors chose Ruth Anderson and Kathy Riley; Juniors, Carol Manthe and Gwen Johnson; Sophomores, Lou Ann Grinde and Beverly Beck; Freshmen, Lois Johnson and Nona Lee Swalheim.
	2	Gosh, tied Oregon, 6-6--after that swell introductory pep meeting the Sophs gave us.
	6	Dr. Schindler told us how to live one hundred years and be happy. Twenty forty's here we come.
	9	Fell to Sun Prairie to make their homecoming a great success. Score, 20-0. Saw Ashley Memorial Field dedicated.
	12	National FFA Convention held at Kansas City. We certainly admired the sombreros and cowboy boots sported by Wayne Manthe, David Mell, David Homman, Lawrence Kampen, and Allen Boyd. Lucky kids got out of classes, too.



"La Vonne"
Best of luck to a swell girl. Have fun this summer and in your remaining days at D.H.S.
Audrey J.

La Vonne,
Although I didn't get to know you very well, I hope you have fun the remaining years at D.H.S. Have fun this summer. Best of luck to you next year. Be sure to learn a lot.

18 Student Council sponsored the annual Christmas party--showed "The Iron Man" with Jeff Chandler; then had community singing and refreshments. Played Verona in the evening--Lost 70-54. Christmas vacation--"Santy Claus is Coming to Town."

19 Mr. Meister took on an assistant coach today--also a lot of "ribbing" about traveling in that proverbial double harness.

January 4 Monday morning--back to school--furnace was on the blink, remember????

7 "Winter Wonderland," Home Economics style show, was given by the Junior and Senior girls.

8 Lost to Juneau, 50-38.

14-15 The student's nightmare--semester examinations--Tried to clear the air by playing Marshall, but lost, 58-46.

19 Waunakee won, score, 71-48.

20 Furnace fluse burned out---n-o-o-o- school!!!

22 Played Cambridge. They won, 60-47, but we had fun at the juke box dance after the game.

27 Those long-awaited prizes for the magazine campaign came and Wayne sported a new wrist watch.

29 Shirley Caldwell was named DAR representative by popular vote of the Senior Class. Lost again--this time to Deerfield, score, 70-56.

February 1 Newspaper staff ice skating party foiled by 45° temperature. Danced, played basketball, and chatted instead.

3 Senior "Aggies" attended Farm and Home Week conference at the University.

5 Ho-hmmmm!!! Lost to Waterloo, 64-53.

Ya Vonne,
Best of luck to a swell girl. Take it easy in your Junior year.

11 FFA Leadership Training School held at the school gym with officers and advisors from 20 surrounding schools attending. Main speaker was Randall Swanson, Safety Engineer at the College of Agriculture, University of Wisconsin, who talked on the year's plans for the chapter safety program.

12 Sophomore girls went to Oscar Mayer's and Gardner Bakery. What a wonderful 10 o'clock pastime.

13 Freshmen became a part of our student body--"Greenies" turned white, sometimes red.

17 First Basketball game--lost to Poynette, 51-46.

20 Senior play, "Curtain Going Up," a hilarious affair. Funny, Francis Bruns getting romantic with Mary Lois Skaar. Magazine campaign ended with loads of winners: Don Reigel received the radio; Kenny Gilbertson, the fish bowl remains; Mr. Abraham, his teddy bear for advising the seniors who had the greatest per capita sales. One hundred per cent participation and reaching of class goals gave everyone candy bars and apples. Wayne Manthe was the school's high salesman with total sales of $172.00.

24 Mr. Kmel, an Egyptian speaker, visited our school. He spoke and answered questions about his country. Beat Oregon in a non-conference game, 44-31.

25 Juniors chose their class rings.

26-27 Thanksgiving vacation with turkey, cranberries, and pumpkin pie, y-m-m-m-!

December 1 Decisively beaten by Waunakee, 66-28.

4 Sun Prairie played here. Enjoyed the all-school dance after the game.

8 Fall Musicale was wonderful again this year.

11 Oregon played here--We lost, 61-44.

15 Oh, dear! those little white cards in the little yellow envelopes came out for the first time today. Wonder if Dad will let me go to the homecoming pep rally tonight. Sure 'nuff--a wonderful rally--snake dance, bonfire, cheering, singing, talks by the whole team and Eddie Fulton, repatriated POW, and John Dittrick, University of Wisconsin football player.

16 Beat Johnson Creek, 7-6. Dance at the gym was a big success--Bob Gest's orchestra--Ruth Anderson chose Chuck Johnson as king---Court, Carol Manthe and Carroll Mell, Gwen Johnson and Bob Showers, Nona Lee Swalheim and Gordy Thurber.

17 Junior and Senior girls traveled to Madison to attend the annual Career Day conference.

23 No school today while teachers go to Madison to learn about Civil Defense. Spoiled Cambridge's Homecoming, 13-0.

30 Beat new conference entrant, Juneau.

November 3 Played Poynette in an exhibition game. We won in their first attempt at eleven-man football. Carroll Mell, left end, was elected football captain for '54. "Beep" Frye, right half back, was selected on the all-conference first team, while Bob Showers, left tackle; Ed Busse, right tackle; and Russ Karow, center, were chosen for the all-conference second team.

5-6 Teachers traveled to Milwaukee for WEA convention. Oh, happy day--long weekend.

9 PTA Mixer. Parents find out what we have to put up with and vice versus!!!!!

10 Magazine campaign opened today---school goal--$3,000--individual student goal--$13.04.

8 The band journeyed to Lake Mills to hear a combined southeastern district band.

10 Tobacco problems discussed and settled at the school gym.

12 "Tweet-Tweet"--dress up day in honor of the annual "Twerp" season dance held after the game with Johnson Creek.

19 Teachers go to SWEA meeting and we enjoy ourselves.

22 Juniors held a big session and chose Carroll Mell as their Prom King. Juniors named for the Court of Honor were: Gwen Johnson, Ruth Herschleb, Mary Williamson, Jerry Manthe, Donald Bork, and Gordon Thurber.

23 Home Forensic contest brought us two winners in each division.

March 5 Annual Farmers' Institute was held at the school gym and in the evening we got a good start on our three-night freshmen play stance.

8-9 Finished up our Freshie plays and were we scared!

10 League Forensic Contest was held at Sun Prairie and we collected 10 of the 14 A ratings given.

11 "Jubilee" singers entertained us at a well-received all-school assembly program sixth hour.

16 Ruth Herschleb was chosen new office girl, while Nancy Haack will attend Badger Girls' State and Gordy Thurber and Jerry Manthe the Boys' State at Ripon.

18 Seniors' treat, "The Invisible Agent," intrigued the teachers. With eyes in the back of their head, what else do they want?

23 FFA speaking and quartette contest held here and for a day the ratio was g-O-O-d!

26 Senior Banquet went off with the usual amount of success, directed by Miss Mulvey and Toastmaster Bob Showers, who almost didn't make it.

29 A speaker from Japan entranced us today with his stories of his homeland.

April 9 Band solo and ensemble tourney held at Oregon.

16 "Here Comes Peter Cottontail, hopping down the Bunny Trail." Vacation until Tuesday, and then Juniors begin draping for the Prom.

23 Big night---the Junior Prom. King Carroll Mell and Queen Carol Manthe reigned in spite of "April Showers."

27 Spring musical starred all the winners of the solo tourney.

May 8 Oh, what fun--band tournament--it should have been on a school day.

20 Groan! Final exams and we near the end. Juniors held their picnic at Vilas Park in the afternoon. Those teachers certainly play a mean game of baseball.

23 Baccalaureate--but we didn't know this graduating would bring a lump to our throats.

24 Commencement---our motto, "Finished--yet beginning" an apt one.

25 Seniors went to Devil's Lake State Park and we did have such a wonderful time.

26 New alumni honored guests at the annual Alumni Banquet. Farewell to thee our Alma Mater. We'll miss our carefree days with you. We thank you for the big fun-loving, hard-working part you have played in our lives. We'll be back to see you next year.
